

SECOND PUBLIC FORUM FOR 2004 ORGANISED BY OGSS

The second public forum for 2004 organised by OGSS and supported by Mead Johnson was held on 28 August 2004 at Sheraton Towers. Entitled "The Gift of Life: From Conceiving to Delivery", the event was well attended by over 250 participants. The event was also extensively covered by the media with reports in major newspapers and television footage.

Five prominent speakers presented their expert advice on a wide range of topics. They were:

1. Difficulty to conceive: Are there simpler treatments before IVF?

Dr Beh Suan Tiong
Consultant Obstetrician and Gynaecologist
Thomson Medical Centre

2. Beyond orgasm – sexual dysfunction and parenthood. What to do?

Dr Choo Wan Ling
Consultant Obstetrician and Gynaecologist
Thomson Women's Clinic

3. Doctor, will I have a normal delivery?

Dr Shamini Nair
Associate Consultant Obstetrician and Gynaecologist
KK Women's & Children's Hospital

4. Is my baby normal? Issues in late parenthood

Dr June Tan
Associate Consultant Obstetrician and Gynaecologist
KK Women's & Children's Hospital

5. Role of DHA and ARA in Infant Nutrition

Ms Pauline Chan
Senior Consultant Dietician/Nutritionist
Food and Nutrition Specialists PL

There was a lively Q&A session following the presentation and this was chaired by our President, Dr Lee Keen Whye.

The Society has planned for 2 public forums in 2005 and the first Mandarin public forum will be held in April 2005 and to be organised by Dr Beh Suan Tiong.

We welcome members who intend to participate in the public forum as speakers and you may express your interest by contacting the secretariat.
